Wee Wonders amaze at Aldwickbury Park Golf Club

(Harpenden, Hertfordshire – July 8, 2008) Aldwickbury Park Golf Club played host to over 80 children as it staged one of the world's biggest competitions in junior golf.

The HSBC Wee Wonders held its East region final at the Harpenden club, which saw 82 kids battle it out for a place in the prestigious final at the Home of Golf – St Andrews.

Children aged between 5 and 12 years took to the club's par-3 course to play the Wee Wonders competition where, in an alternative format to standard golf, they are given 36 shots to see how far around the course they can get. Once they have taken their allotted shots, they place a flag into the ground.

Tristan Hall, general manager of Aldwickbury Park Golf Club, said: "It was great to have so many kids here enjoying the day and playing host to such a prestigious competition as the HSBC Wee Wonders. There were some really outstanding young players involved and it showcased the standard of our par-3 course."

Local youngsters, Jake Craddock, aged seven, and Georgia Oboh, also aged seven, were two of the 10 juniors to win through to the grand final. Jake, from St Albans, and Georgia are members of Redbourn Golf Club. Callum Walker, aged nine, from St Albans, qualified for the final for the second successive year.
