APOLOGIES

P.Spiers

MATTERS ARISING

White Board; The Captain to speak to Tristan about a replacement

Competitions/Qualifiers; Scott to be made aware that qualifying competitions (Including mid month stablefords) must be played off white tees

Measuring Devices; these can now be used

Club Constitution; The new owners looking at this

Showers; the showers need new heads and the new shower curtains have insufficient width

Rules Evening; this has been arranged for the 8th September

COURSE MATTERS

It was noted that Scott had been given £30,000 to purchase new equipment and a new utility vehicle had been purchased together with a water bowser

In general the committee agreed that the course was much improved and the new owners (and Scott) should be thanked for their efforts

Matters to be raised with them were;

Bunkers

150 yd posts

Out of bound posts

COMPETITION HANDBOOK

The Captain and the committee thanked Terry Turner and Maureen Everett for the work they had done completing the competition handbook which would be circulated shortly

COMPETITIONS AND QUALIFIERS

It was noted that Tristan had raised the low entries to last month's medal and the fact that empty tee times were not available to members.

It was agreed that from the September medal the competition would be run on entries being in entry order and then allocated a time.

The question of qualifying rounds played overseas was raised and the committee reaffirmed the decisions of the gent's and ladies' committees i.e.

“As handicap qualifying scores outside the UK are not accepted by CONGU for handicap purposes, it is not possible to include those rounds as eligibility qualifiers for winning competitions at APGC, as the handicap systems are incompatible.”

BURHILL

The Captain had played APGC with the new owners and discussed issues such as internal out of bounds with them

The yellow tee marker on the 13th was raised

At the meeting next week their attitude to membership fees etc would be discussed.

It was noted that the Caterers had been given notice to expire at the end of November

SOCIAL COMMITTEE FUNDS

It was noted that the balance of the social committee funds (about £2.8k) had been transferred to the gents section for admin convenience although “ring fenced” for social events

ANY OTHER BUSINESS

The unclean state of the buggies was raised

It was noted that the new union flag had been purchased and raised

Next year's provisional list of competitions was discussed. It was agreed that in future mixed matches would be played on an annual basis (i.e. not home and away) with the catering finance dealt with at the event.

DATE OF NEXT MEETING

The date of the next meeting was agreed as 4th October at 5.30pm
