

The Partnership of Wine and Food

The following suggestions may be of help in the choice of wines. Much has been written about what should be served with what, but this is essentially a matter of personal taste, and these suggestions should only be used as a guide.

As an Apéritif

Dry or medium Sherry, Champagne or Sparkling Wine or a light, fruity, white wine.

Shell Fish

Dry white wine.

Fish

Again, dry, white wine such as a white Burgundy or a Loire wine. From the New World, a New Zealand Sauvignon or South African Chenin.

Chicken and Pork

Full-flavoured white wine, New World Chardonnay or a light red such as Beaujolais, Valpolicella or Californian red.

Lamb

Red Burgundy, Claret, Rioja or New World Cabernet Sauvignon.

Game and Roasts

Full-bodied red wine such as a Rhône or Claret. From the New World, a spicy Shiraz or possibly a Chilean or Argentinian Red.

Pasta Dishes

Lots of options depending on the sauce.
Some suggestions are:

Cream Sauce

Light, Italian, dry white wine such as Soave or Frascati.

Meat Sauce

Medium red, a Merlot or Cabernet/Merlot blend.

Pesto (Basil)

Chenin Blanc or Sauvignon Blanc.

Seafood Sauce

Dry white wine.

Tomato Sauce

Italian or New World red, such as Shiraz/Cabernet.

Sweets and Desserts

Sweet whites like white Bordeaux, Australian pudding wine or 'sticky'. Alternatively a Champagne or Sparkling wine.

Taste  Guide

Champagne, White and Rosé wines are designated numbers from 1 to 9, with 1 being the driest and 9 being the sweetest. Red wines are designated letters from A to E, with A being the lightest and softest and E being the deepest and fullest
